

4+1 Course Selection Guide

Graduate Course Selection

Three graduate courses will be completed as an undergraduate, and students must receive at least a "B" in each course in order for program will be allowed to register for these classes.

1. : Introductory Econometrics – Must take ECO 6350. Do not take ECO 4350.

Course Name	Undergraduate Course Number	Graduate Course Number
Introductory Econometrics	ECO 4350	ECO 6350

2. The other two graduate courses are electives that can be selected from the following courses in green. Note that several of these courses also have undergraduate sections which meet at the same time. In most cases, you should apply to register for the graduate section of the course.

Course Name	Undergraduate Course Number	Graduate Course Number
International Economic and Financial Environment	N/A	ECO 6330
International Trade	N/A	ECO 6331
Trade Policy and the World Trading System	N/A

Undergraduate Course Selection: Important note regarding ECO electives

Three undergraduate ECO courses will be replaced with the three graduate courses above.